CAVALARI BICENTENNIAL COLLECTION

This collection was assembled by a collector active during the Bicentennial Era, 1974-76, obtaining the medals as they were issued. He accomplished his goal—to obtain at least one type of every bicentennial medal—for the most part. When possible he chose that type in silver, and often was successful in obtaining serial number 22 for those that were so numbered. He placed these in albums, eventually to number 25 in all.

Every major type of Bicentennial medal is represented in this collection. However, since Bicentennial medals were issued at every level of American citizenry, the challenge was greatest to obtain the lesser known, obscure issues. For this effort Mr. Cavalari was successful in capturing well over 90% of all bicentennial medals issued. This is a rare opportunity for these to come on the market at one time.

Part I

Eugene Bowles Collection

Medallic Art of Godefroid Devreese

This collection was formed by an American collector, Eugene Bowles, enamored by the glyptic work of Belgium medallist, Godefroid Devreese. Through the artist's family Mr. Bowles obtained many specimens which were Devreese's own copies, most of which are identified on the piece stamped Epreuve d'Auteur (artist's proof).

The collection is one of the most complete ever formed of the artist's work and Mr. Bowles cooperated withthe definitive catalog by Albert M. Willenz, Le Madailieur Godefroid Devreese, published in 1986. Willenz numbers are used in the listing below. Part 2 of this collection will appear in a future auction.

ROMAN PILGRIMS' POSTHUMOUS MEDALS

The following is a selection of posthumous medals of popes who reigned long before the return of the medal as an art form in the Italian Reaissance. Such bronze pieces were generally cast in 40-42mm diameter to sell to pilgrims in the Eternal City. Their imaginary portraits are by anonymous artists and reverses are generic, showing the Keys of Peter in one form or another, imaginary coats of arms or emblems of the Trinity. These examples were probably cast in the 17th & 18th centuries.

BENEDICT XV ANNUAL MEDAL SERIES

The brief pontificate of Pope Benedict XV coincided with the First World War and its shabby aftermath. The pope's efforts to end the war were unsuccessful, and the Vatican was excluded from the Peace Coference by the narrow sectarianism of President Woodrow Wilson. Only seven Annual medals were struck for this pontiff, and a full run of each type is offered here for the first time in any recent auction. Annual medals struck between the seizure of the city of Rome by the Italians in 1870 and resumption of papal sovereignty in 1929 are highly elusive for today's collectors.
